INTER TATE COMMISSION.

NEW YORK, February 23d .- The Times'

Washington special says: Only one man has been offered a place on the Interstate Railroad Commission, and he has declined it. One candidate selected by the President was ex-Senator Thurman, whose declina-tion is positive. Further than that the formation of the Commission has not ad-vanced. The President has simplified his work by announcing to the California representatives who called upon him in the interest of Mr. Swift, of that State, that he would not go so far west as the Pacific slope for a member of the Commission.

The Commission will consist of one man from the New England States, another from the Middle States—probably from New York—another from Ohio, Indiana or Illinois, a fourth from the Northwest, and a fifth from the South. Applications to the number of 400 and more are not likely to sign Bills. influence the President's choice. He had about chosen the Eastern man, and the storm of criticism provoked by the mention of the man's name has made doubtful the wisdom of appointing him. On motion of Mrs. Severance, of Wisconsin, the rules were suspended and Crocker, of Kansas, was permitted to explain the Oklahoma movement, and to plain the Oklahoma movement, and to present a preamble and resolution in regard.

After discussion, the resolution went to a his name.

A motion to lay the minority report on the table was made, and a viva voce vote appeared to carry the motion.

A division was called for and showed the ote almost unanimous in favor of laying on the table. Mrs. Severance offered a substitute for the suffrage amendment, declaring the "right to vote is inherent in citizenship, rrespective of sex." The substitute was adopted by a three-fourths vote. The only other section giving rise to ex-ended debate was the temperance plank. After various substitutes had been re ected, the plank was adopted as offered in

The platform after having been s amended as to make the name of the party "Union Labor," was adopted, and at midnight the Convention adjourned until o'clock to morrow morning.

Washington, February 23d .- In the Senate, at 2 o'clock, the unfinished busines was announced, being the bill to create the Department of Agriculture and Labor. Jones of Arkansas made an argument in support of the bill.
Several amendments reported by the Senate Committee on Agriculture to the House bill were agreed to, down to the one providing for the transfer of the Signal Service. The bill was then passed without divison, and conference was asked.

The Senate then took up the pleuro-

Van Wyck suggested, in view of the importance of the matter, that Friday next e designated for its consideration. Edmunds objected.

Hoar gave notice that he would to-mor-row ask the Senate to assign a time, probably 2 o'clock on Friday, for the considering of the Pacific inquiry bill. Frye made an affecting appeal to the Senate to take up and consider the message from the President, vetoing the bill that would allow arrearages of pension to Thomas S. Mr. Crocker went on to speak of the wrongs of the Oklahoma colonists. His point was that a railroad corporation and a cattle syndicate were holding possession of that country by the power of a military mob. He would not call it military—it was a military mob. He pictured the peaceful purposes of the settlers, anxious to get homes, and the gross outrages inflicted on them, arrested, subjected to indignities, in one case resulting in the death of the wife of one of these men seeking a home. He closed with the hove that his home. He closed with the hope that his resolution, when presented for action, would be adopted without a dissenting vote. Cleveland said that he had examined the charges, and was of the opinion that they did not specifically assail Brooks' integrity. His accusers, he said, were evi dently instigated by personal hostility to the man. Senator Stanford said Brooks had probably made personal enemies by his outspoken denunciation of political opponents; and added that a man who did not have enemies was generally of negative and indifferent character. EUROPE SHAKEN UP. Severe Earthquake Shocks in the Southern Portion of Europe.

Rome, February 23d,-Two shocks arthquake were felt at Nice at 6 o'clock morning. Houses rocked, walls eracked, and in some cases frail tenements were thrown to the ground. People rushed n the streets, praying for deliverance from sudden death. Visitors to the city have become thoroughly frightened and are leaving the place. Many persons were injured by falling debris. Much alarm is felt The Prince of Wales, who was in Nice a few days ago, witnessing the festivitie which precede the Lenten season, had taken his departure and was safe at Cannes. Shocks were also felt at Montecarlo and Monaco, at which place they were so severe that rocks were detached from the cliffs and precipitated into the sea. The disturbances extended as far as Genoa. At the time of the earthquake this morning the Rivera was crowded with English and American tourists, and persons of disand American tourists, and persons of dis-tinction. WHY THIS DELAY?

There is in some quarters a faint disposition to decry the State text-book experiment. That this has representation in the Legislature, we were unwilling to believe but facts of which we now have knowledge justify suspicion. Outside influences are known to be secretly at work to defeat the State's effort, and these we fear are being responded to actively in the Legislature. The people, in November, 1884, by the astonishing vote of 143,017 against 11,930, adopted a constitutional amendment by which the State was required to enter upon the compilation and manufacture of efficiently worked out to this date, with a success greatly exceeding the expectations of the most sanguine friends of the scheme. It has resulted so satisfactorily as to disarm all legitimate opposition-the opponent with ulterior views and a selfish interest is never disarmed. Most of the books have been produced; they have received the indorsement of the unprejudiced educators of the State, and we take it that practical men, comparing the old and the new, with scarce an exception will concur in the judgment that there have been produced as good, if not better books by the State than the people bought of the book syndicates he etofore. They are as well printed and better bound than any that preceded them. A BILL TO CONSERVE HUMAN RIGHTS.

It is very late in the legislative session to expect a bill just introduced to be passed into law. Still, we entertain the hope that the Vrooman bill to defend laborers from strikers will be taken up, passed and sent to the Governor. It is in the interest of free labor, of working men, of honest industry. There is no reason why men who want to work and succeed in securing employment should not be protected from the assaults, threats and brutality of those who think they know better than the workers themselves what is good for them The bill provides that it shall be a misdemeanor to interfere by threats or otherwise with a worker to induce him to quit his time.

If it be said there is law sufficient now to protect men from assault, it is to be replied that in fact it does not protect them from the intimidation, conspiracies, brow-beating and menacing attitudes of strikers.

There is needed a vigorous law to put in the list of crimes all efforts to drive men to the days of the same, etc. Read second time.

from labor by those whose places they take or to drag into a strike workmen who have neither part nor lot in it. As a matter of fact, the labor organizations of the country have lately assumed the right to do that no have lately assumed the right to do that no individual would dare attempt. Recently dispatches from New York read: "The on-union freight handlers were again attacked this evening as they were quitting work at several of the North river piers. At the Savannah Line pier two or three men were beaten, pounded and kicked unmercifully. No arrests were made. One man was assaulted while a policeman was near, but he did not dare to interfere on account of the crowd." And this is a fair sample of many dispatches, and represents outrages of like character in this State on more than one occasion. It represents the disposition to substitute the "union" decree for the rule of the State and the majesty of free government-a tendency that must be cut short, and speedily.

Labor leagues may resolve by night and by day that they condemn these coercive methods and are not responsible for them, but all the world knows they do foster and encourage them by every movement they make to drive men from labor. Their whole course shows that they have no deep sense of shame over these infractions of human rights. We shall not be surprised even to find some of them condemning the bill referred to instead of apdemning the bill referred to instead of applauding it as they should, if they are sell them at cost to the parents and guardians of children of the public schools. Both the great political parties approved the measure by express platform declarations. In 1885 the Legislature, with scarcely a dissenting voice, put the plan into operation. It has been diligently and efficiently worked out to this date, with a self-ciently worked out to the parents and guarding it as they should, if they are plauding it as they should, if they are true friends of labor. For it is no more true friends of health to simplify the methods of legislation of the bill on b set up a reign of threats and violence to drive non-strikers from work, they invoke the conditions are reversed; they assail the one shield that assures them of even the right to strike. There is nothing that can excuse or palliate these attempts to force men who disagree with strikers, to join their ranks. Yet the thing is done, and there appears to be inability to reach the wrong under the present laws, and hence, we presume, the introduction of the legislation without doing anything to make the enactment of laws easier or safer.

There is in all these strikes more or less of misrule, and lately an incomprehensible inactivity on the part of peace officers. A new law is needed to warn the offenders and prod the negligent, and this bill appears to move in that direction and well up to core of the evil.

Assembly constitutional amendment 7, the bolish the Board of Railroad Commissioners. abolish the Board of Railroad Commissioners, was withdrawn, leave being granted the author to do so. Mr. Hart made a short speech, in which he expressed the opinion that the Railroad Commission was a useless appendage to the State government, but the committee to whom the amendment had been referred had not thought so, and had agreed to report adversely. While he did not relinquish his opinion, he still had no objection to the measure being withdrawn.

Mr. Renison opposed the passage of the amendment. The object of reading bills three times was to compel members to understand them before the roll-call was reached. He did not think there was any public desire for a change in the Constitution in this respect.

Mr. Coembs said the committee having the subject under consideration had discussed two propositions—one to simplify the methods of opositions—one to simplify the methods gislation and another to extend the period be sessions—it being plain that no laws can be beassed as things are. The committee had concluded that to simplify the methods of legislation was the cheapest and best, and so had reported the measure. A. B. 13, to define, regulate and govern State Prisons of California, was opposed by Mr. Brierly, on the ground that the section prohibiting the sale of jute bags in the months of August, September and October, except in small quantities, would operate to squeeze grain farmers worse than the bag ring has ever done. The bill was defended by Hyde, who explained that bags can be sold upon orders prior to those months, which would prevent a corner. Carr of Sacramento expressed the opinion that the bill would stop stone manufacturing at Folsom, which he did not think to the interest of the State. The stone quarrying there certainly should be continued.

Hyde said he supported the bill for the very reason that it stopped the manufacture of everything at the prisons except jute bags.

Brierly moved to amend so that the Prison Directors may sell bags from June 1st to December 1st, but at no other time of the year.

Is more surely and speedily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, than by any other remedy. I was a great sufferer from liver troubles, and never found anything that gave me permanent relief until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, about two years ago. A few bottles of this medicine produced a radical cure. - Wm. E. Baker, 155 W. Brookline st., Boston, Mass.

A Remarkable Cure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured me of as bad a case of Abscess of the Liver as any human being could be afflicted with and live. I was confined to the house for two years, and, for the last three months of that time, was unable to leave my bed. Four physicians treated me without giv-ing relief, and, in fact, nothing helped me, until I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using a quarter of a bottle of this medi-cine I began to feel better, and every additional dose seemed to bring new health and strength. The fact of their having been delayed while en route, on one for $100 last Monday. The in consequence of the Nevada County statement was sufficient to confirm Postmaster Pedlar's suspicions, and to Narrow Gauge Railroad becoming blockaded by snow, was mentioned in yesterday's Record-Union, but it seems the boys had quite an experience, "not down on the bills." When they found that the road was likely to be blocked for several hours, and their visit to their comrades in arms would possibly have to be abandoned, if they waited for transportation, they determined to reach their destination by a forced march. A lady and her two daughters, occupying a ranch near where the train was snowed in, very kindly be stirred themselves and provided the entire company and the band with hot biscuits, company and the band with hot biscuits, coffee and fried ham, which seemed one of the finest breakfasts the soldiers had ever partaken of. Then they started in single file, through snow from knee to waist deep, from himself, and paid the dollar and also from himself, and paid the dollar and also from himself, and paid the dollar and also partaken of. Then they started in single file, through snow from knee to waist deep, for Grass Valley, a distance of seven miles, accomplishing the march in a little less largest companies ever seen, reaching about in the same sum. When Mr. Pellar reone-fourth of a mile. When they arrived turned and saw the order for $1, and found one-fourth of a mile. When they arrived at Grass Valley they intended to obtain refreshments and then go on ot Nevada City in vehicles, but, about five minutes after they reached there, the train came along. They thought their trouble over, and took their places in the cars, but met with further detention, one of the locomotives getting off the track. They "got there all the same," and were youre than a saw the order for $1, and found the fee paid, he did not mistrust anything wrong, and in fact nothing could have been ascertained showing that there had been trickery until after the accounts from the Sacramento and Woodland Postoffices had been received and compared at Washington but for Mr. Pedlar's subsequent suspicions.

When the case of T. C. Casey, against whom there are two charges of burglary pending-entering rooms Eagle Hotel—was called, Grove L. Johnson, for the defendant, announced that a very important witness on that side, S. Meyers, had not been subpensed, as the Sheriff had been unable to find him. That official had learned from Killip & Co, employers of Mevers, that he was in the East, and would not soon return. The defense will endeavor to prove by this witness that a certain Mexican $20 piece, claimed by Senator Walrath to be a portion of the property taken from his room at the Golden when it was burglarized, and which was found in Casey's room after the officers arrested him, was in Casey's possession two days prior to the burglary. Counsel for the prosecution admitted the importance of proturing this witness, and of reasonable time to do so, and, as man to arrest him. TO BUYERS WINDOW SHADES.

Our full stock of Window Shades for the Spring trade is now here. In quality, style and price they offer strong advantages over anything we have ever had before. This can be shown no more clearly than by comparing the new shades with last year's goods, samples of which we happen to have. Even last year our prices were considerably below the market.

All the new Shades are mounted on patent rollers, and come with fixtures complete-even to the nails with which to put them up. We also supply fixtures singly if desired, so that broken parts can be replaced at any time at trifling cost.

Our new Shades are seven feet long. The customary length is but six feet.

Shades for schools, churches, stores, etc., furnished in any colors or sizes. Prices on application.

Sacramento county, Arno Station. Sidney is a rich bay with black points, 15 hands 2 icches high. Although only 6 years old he has two-year-old colts which, as yearlings with from six to eight weeks' handing, have showed one-quarter in 39 seconds, one-half in 1:20. I have sold one of his yearlings for $1,800, and refused $3,200 for three others. This tells more about his qualities as a stock horse than a page of calogium. His breeding is so royal that it speaks for itself. The New York Star's London cable says While officials deny the report of the move ment of British troops in Afghanistan, the belief is growing in diplomatic circles that England is about to strike a blow with the Ameer against the Ghilzais, and that Afnanistan is soon to become the scene of loody struggle between England and

Mrs. Mary S. Logan took out letters of dministration on the estate of the late Senator John A. Logan in the Probate Court Monday. The papers of administra-ion were made out making Mrs. Logan administratrix, there being no will. The es-tate consists of household furniture, books, notes, accounts, live stock and two con tracts for royalties on books, besides real estate in Cook and Jackson counties. The value of the real property was not given, but the personal property was valued at $10,000. The bond was for $20,000.

How to CURL AN OSTRICH PLUME .-Have ready some corn cobs and common salt, and let the fire in the cook-stove burn down till you have a good bed of coals, lay the cobs on and sprinkle them with salt, and shake the feather in the smoke. Add cobs and salt from time to time, and be sure to shake the plume well, turning every part to the smoke. The harder you shake the feather the better it will look. Be care-ful to keep it far enough from the fire to keep it from burning. The livelier the coals without blaze the better. I have tried to make this plain. I thought my plumes completely spoiled till I tried this receipt. I saw a milliner wash a white plume once and curl it this way, and it looked as uice as new. She washed it in sudwand rinsed it in clear water, and shook it vigorously until about dry, and then shook it over the smoke. Learn in childhood, if you can, that happiness is not outside, but inside. A good heart and a clear conscience bring happi-ness which no riches and no circumstances

FOR THE CURE OF FEVER AND AGUE Or CHILLS and FEVER. AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Touic, a single dose three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENTS VEG TABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use to other. ALT LAKE, February 23d.—Thomas But-and Andrew A. Winberg, convicted be-BULL'S SARSAPARILLA, the C. P. office for the engineer to take the party and turn the $1,000 over to the raily road hotel at Colfax to be devoted to feeding the needy passengers snowed in there. Mr. Mackay and the party, before starting, established themselves as a committee and soon hunted up the passengers there who were in need of assistance. They were all a housed and with free grub provided for at least ten days. One poor woman on the train, a Mrs. Matthews, with two children, bound for Omaha, was wanting for the necessaries of life when the party went through the train. She had never mentioned her condition to any of the passengers, and her two children were really suffering from hunger. Senators Westerfield and Williams gave the woman $20 apiece, and Black Wallace purchased clothes for the children. Mackay found three other poor women on the train and gave them $100 each. The recipients of the charity did like children, and the scenes on the train are described as very affecting. — Carwon Appeal.

Sneezing Catarrh.

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, cough, ringing noises in the head and splitting headaches-how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influenza, and who gress to legislate so as to defeat the effect of riodically from head coldsor influenza, and who these decisions, that strike at the sacred live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple Catarri gives but a faint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous accumulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated and hacking cough gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvelous curative power of SANFORD'S RADICAL CUEE manifests itself in instantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins stantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent, economical, safe.

The east-bound passenger train on the Central Pacific Railroad was detained several days at Colfax by the snow. On the train were John W. Mackay and W. J. Westerfield. Word was sent from San Francisco for the snow-plows to be sent forward. The Nevada party wanted to go through with the plows, but were not allowed to do so, as that was against orders. Mr. Mackay then sent to San Francisco offering $1,000 to be allowed to go with his party with the snow-plows. The offer was accepted, and word was wired back from the C. BUTTER—The bad condition of the roads during the later aims detained more or less Butter at dairies, thus giving dealers opportunity to clean up stocks. Receipts, however, will become larger now that fair weather prevails. EGGS—Supplies are larger than the demand, and the market shows pronounced declining tendency. The fact that Eastern consignments are on the way, and offered to arrive at 18@19e p dozen, helps to further weaken the situation. At this season of the year the Eastern artice compares favorably with home product, and prices in distant markets govern to some extent the quotations for California stock.
